

An established Electrical & Mechanical consultancy with significant participation in Greenfield / Brownfield projects for Data Centers, mission critical environment and fit-outs of multinational companies setting the standards for innovative design and know how in the building services industry.

The company advocates a culture of delivery of quality products by recruiting staff with strong technical knowledge, excellent communication skills and able to think, organise and deliver projects on schedule.

Staff are given the opportunities for exposure to and gain experience in managing key projects and be part of team with hands on team leaders. The company practices fair remuneration for outperforming staff and provide ample opportunity for development of individual skills.

Mechanical Engineer

What are we looking for in a candidate?

- A recognized Bachelor or post graduate degree in Mechanical Engineering degree
- A minimum of 4-5 years' experience working in Engineering Consultancy/ Construction industry
- Background in Data Centre design and commissioning experience is a plus
- Has strong Air Conditioning, Mechanical Ventilation design + Active Fire Protection Services
- Has excellent communication skills, both written and verbal English
- Have the ability to think on your feet, organize and deliver project on schedule
- Have had exposure to design phase, contract administration, testing & commission, site safety and quality management
- Necessary experience eligible for registration with the Board of Engineers Malaysia as a Professional Engineer or a registered P.E
- Candidate with the skill of BIM or have accreditation as ATD will be an added advantage
- Fresh graduate will be considered

Your roles & responsibilities:

- Performing as M&E Design Consultant roles for Data Center from feasibility studies to concept design
- Designing & developing technical solutions for clients' projects
- Producing, coordinating and reviewing M&E design drawings and specifications
- Travelling out of town if required for project needs
- Attending all project meetings

What do we offer?

- A fulfilling career path with tremendous opportunities for growth
- An environment where success is shared
- Attractive remuneration packages for qualified candidates
- Advocate work-life balance
- Actively support staff in enhancement of technical skills and continuous professional education

If you crave a fulfilling career, then apply online.