

An established Electrical & Mechanical consultancy with significant participation in Greenfield / Brownfield projects for Data Centers, mission critical environment and fit-outs of multinational companies setting the standards for innovative design and know how in the building services industry.

The company advocates a culture of delivery of quality products by recruiting staff with strong technical knowledge, excellent communication skills and able to think, organise and deliver projects on schedule.

Staff are given the opportunities for exposure to and gain experience in managing key projects and be part of team with hands on team leaders. The company practices fair remuneration for outperforming staff and provide ample opportunity for development of individual skills.

Project Mechanical Engineer/ Engineer Assistant

What are we looking for in a candidate?

- Possess a degree/ higher diploma in Mechanical Engineering
- Fresh graduate / 1 - 2 years' work experience as a project engineer
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Proficiency in relevant engineering software is a plus
- Effective communication skills, both written and verbal
- Able to work in collaborative manner and a team player

Your roles & responsibilities:

- Collaborate with our engineering team to support ongoing projects and initiatives
- Participate in factory acceptance testing and site acceptance testing
- Liaise with other functional group within the department as well as inter department for project accomplishment or information gathering
- Responsible in adhering to instruction and duties given by the supervisor, immediate superior and to ensure its accomplishment

What do we offer?

- Tremendous opportunities for growth
- An environment where success is shared
- Actively support staff in enhancement of technical skills and continuous professional education